

State-Funded Prosecuting Attorney (PARF position)

Cass County Prosecutor is seeking a dedicated full-time deputy prosecutor to join the Cass County prosecution team in a state funded position that is eligible for PARF pension benefits. The position will be responsible for major felony drug cases as well as major felony domestic violence cases. The deputy prosecutor may also partner with other attorneys on additional matters and will be on call intermittently to respond to warrant requests from law enforcement. The successful candidate will be welcomed into an office with six experienced attorneys and helpful support staff. Preferred candidates will have experience as a deputy prosecutor and be available to reside in Cass County.

Compensation includes state benefits such as health, disability and life insurance. The minimum salary is $90,000, negotiable based on qualifications and experience.

Please send resumes, cover letter and references to:

Cass County Prosecutor
200 Court Park
Logansport, IN 46947
noah.schafer@co.cass.in.us